Over 10,300 Petition Signatures put Judge Kevin Brobson on the Ballot for Justice of the PA Supreme Court

HARRISBURG, PA – The Judge Brobson for Supreme Court Committee announced today that 10,316 voters signed nominating petitions to put Commonwealth Court President Judge Kevin Brobson on the ballot for Supreme Court justice.

“Judge Brobson entered this race to offer a new voice and new perspective for Pennsylvanians on the Pennsylvania Supreme Court,” said David Freed, the campaign’s chair who is the former U.S. Attorney for the Middle District. “This incredible show of support from voters all over the state sends an overwhelming and strong message that Judge Brobson is the best candidate for our next Supreme Court Justice.”

The minimum requirement to gain a spot on the statewide ballot is 1,000 signatures, including at least 100 signatures from five counties. Twenty-nine counties produced 100 signatures, and in some cases, hundreds of signatures, to put Judge Brobson on the ballot.

“Pennsylvanians deserve to have faith in the judicial branch of government, and I am grateful and humbled that so many voters have put their faith in my candidacy,” said Judge Brobson. “I want to thank the volunteers who circulated petitions, the individuals who signed them, and those who worked to get them all to Harrisburg on time. Growing up, I was taught there is no substitute for hard work and today we are seeing the first results of what can happen when people work hard and work together.”

Brobson is the endorsed candidate for Supreme Court by the Pennsylvania Republican Party and earned a “Highly Recommended” rating from The Pennsylvania Bar Association Judicial Evaluation Commission. Born and raised in Lycoming County, he is the son of a retired Pennsylvania state trooper and grandson of a former Philadelphia police officer. Brobson was elected to the Commonwealth Court in 2009, retained in 2019, and chosen by his colleagues in December 2020 to serve as the 10th president judge of the Commonwealth Court.
