PENNSYLVANIA STATE TROOPERS' ASSOCIATION ENDORSE KEVIN BROBSON FOR SUPREME COURT

HARRISBURG, PA – The Pennsylvania State Troopers Association (PSTA) has endorsed Judge Kevin Brobson's campaign for Supreme Court Justice. The association represents more than 9,000 active and retired State Troopers throughout the commonwealth.

“Your demonstrated support of law enforcement officers shows resolute determination in making Pennsylvania a safe place for our citizens to live, work and raise a family,” said PSTA President David Kennedy in the association's letter of endorsement. “As the son of a Pennsylvania State Trooper we are certain you will discharge your duties honestly, faithfully and fairly.”

PSTA also stated it seeks to endorse candidates who have the best interest of Pennsylvania and its law enforcement community at heart.

“As the son of a retired State Trooper, this endorsement is particularly meaningful on both a professional and personal level,” said Judge Brobson. “I know what it is like to wait for your family member to come home safely, and I have tremendous respect for the men and women in uniform who serve their communities with integrity and honor.”

The son of a retired Pennsylvania State Trooper and grandson of a Philadelphia police officer, Judge Brobson is a candidate for justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in the November 2nd election. He currently serves as the President Judge of Commonwealth Court, the statewide appellate court charged with ensuring that government is accountable to the law. In his campaign for justice of the Supreme Court, Judge Brobson is “highly recommended” by the Pennsylvania Bar Association and has received endorsements from a broad range of organizations.
